ORDINANCE NO. 44
Series of 2026

“AN ORDINANCE INSTITUTIONALIZING THE NATIONAL ACTION PLAN ON WOMEN, PEACE AND SECURITY(WPS) IN THE MUNICIPALITY OF CARMEN, SURIGAO DEL SUR”

Author: Hon. Elvie U. Ohao
Enacted: All Members Present

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The 1987 Philippine Constitution recognizes the vital role of women in national building and guarantees the fundamental equality of women and men before the law. Republic Act No. 9710, otherwise known as the Magna Carta of Women mandates the State to ensure the substantive equality of women and men and to promote the empowerment of women, including their protection from all forms of violence in situations of armed conflicts and humanitarian crises. The Women, Peace and Security (WPS) Agenda is an integral part of the global human rights and peace framework advancing gender equality inclusive governance of sustainable peace. The Philippines, through its National Action Plans on WPS (NAP-WPS) in 2010-2016, 2014-2016, 2017-2022 and the current fourth generation 2023-2033 has institutionalized WPS as national priority, translating global and regional commitments into concrete policies, programs and budget allocation. The localization of the WPS is a step to ensure that international and national commitments will greatly impact the real communities particularly the municipal level.

BE IT ORDAINED, by the Sangguniang Bayan of Carmen, Surigao del Sur in Regular Session assembled, that:

SECTION 1. Title- This ordinance shall be known as the Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security in the Municipality of Carmen, Surigao del Sur.

SECTION 2. Declaration of Policy- It is hereby declared the policy of the Municipality of Carmen, Surigao del Sur to institutionalized the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) including but not limited to the following.

1. Promote gender equality and inclusive governance by ensuring women's meaningful participation in decision- making, peace-building and disaster risk reduction.
2. Protect women and girls from all forms of violence and strengthen local Gender-Based Violence (GBV) referral systems.
3. Prevent conflict, social marginalization and Gender-Based Violence through Gender-responsive protocols in local security forces and peace and order councils.
4. Build leadership pathways for grassroots women, and other vulnerable groups, and enhance their representation in local institutions, including the Local Development Council, Local Peace and Order Council, Peoples Council, Local Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council and other relevant councils or committees.
5. Support relief, recovery and resilience- building in affected communities through the integration of WPS principles in local governance.
6. Promote the implementation of WPS programs, projects and initiatives in grassroots communities in a realistic, inclusive and community gender-responsive manner, reflecting the four pillars of WPS and the lived experiences of women and vulnerable groups.
7. Institutionalize the Women, Peace, and Security (WPS) agenda in local policies, plans and programs by integrating WPS principles into LGU's Gender and Development (GAD) plans and budgets, Peace and Order and Public Safety (POPS) plans and budgets and Disaster Risk Reduction and Management (DRRM) plans and budgets and by aligning local ordinances with the National Action Plan on WPS (NAP-WPS) and ASEAN Regional Plan of Action on WPS (RPA-WPS).
8. Integrate and operationalize the four pillars of WPS-Participation, Protection, Prevention and Relief and Recovery- across all relevant programs, policies and governance initiatives, as outlined in the NAP-WPS.
9. Ensure adequate and sustained funding for WPS implementation by mandating the allocation, utilization and tracking of local resources for WPS-related programs, projects and activities, consistent with existing budgeting, GAD and accountability mechanisms.

10. Strengthen accountability and capacity by training barangays and CSOs on WPS monitoring indicators and developing community scorecards for WPS implementation.
