Series of 2026

“AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE OPERATION OF COCKFIGHTING, IMPOSING FEES/CHARGES THEREOF AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES”

Author: Hon. Harvey S. Manawatao

Enacted: All Members Present

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Cockfights are part of our culture/heritage. While is true that cockfighting has been practiced for centuries, it does not mean, everyone is free to engage into this game. No one is allowed to hold cockfights without permit and outside in a licensed legitimate cockpit arena.

Presidential Decree No. 449 otherwise known as Cockfighting Law of 1974 is instructive about cockfighting. On the other hand, the Local Government Code of 1991 as amended is explicit, that the Sangguniang Bayan has the power to authorize and grant license for the establishment, operation and maintenance of cockpit and regulate cockfighting.

To ensure the safety of the cockfight aficionados and the cockfights shall be held only in an authorized and license cockpit arena, to enact this ordinance is deemed necessary.

BE IT ORDAINED, by the Sangguniang Bayan of Carmen, Surigao del Sur in Regular Session assembled, that:

Section 1. TITLE- This ordinance shall be known as COCKFIGHTING ORDINANCE OF CARMEN 2026.

Section 2. PURPOSE- This Ordinance shall govern the establishment, operation and maintenance of cockpits, fees and charges, and the regulation of cockfighting.

Section 3. DECLARATION OF POLICY- It is hereby declared a policy of the Municipality of Carmen:

1. To ensure maximum development and promotion of wholesome recreation and amusement to bring about the family goals.
2. It is the purpose of this ordinance to efficiently control and regulate cockfighting toward its establishments, as a national recreation, relaxation and other source of entertainment.
3. To remove and prevent an excessive reasonable business operation and profits consideration in the management of cockpits and instead preserve Philippine Customs and traditions and enhance national identity.

- b. No international Cockfights may be held without permit or license from the Sangguniang Bayan and approved by the Municipal Mayor. The Sangguniang Bayan may authorize the promotion of International Cockfight Derbies for the support of fund-raising campaigns upon application of duly qualified promoters and countersigned by the owner/operator or license of the cockpit or sponsoring organization. Such application shall be at least seven (7) days before the scheduled international Cockfight Derby.

Section 13.1 - All persons maintaining, operating or conducting any cockpit, any person directly or indirectly participating in the cockfights shall abide by, and obey the following rules and regulations of cockfighting as herein below enumerated, to wit:

Rule 1. It is prohibited for any person to accept any bet without the corresponding money at his disposal to respond to the bet in case he loses. No checks will be accepted in bets or payment of bets.

Rule 2. No person shall talk to, interfere with, or in any way obstruct the acts of the starters while releasing their respective cocks; neither shall any person talk to, interfere with, or in any way hamper, the referee while a cockfight is in progress, especially when the referee is in the act of rendering his decision on any match.

Rule 3. Any violation of the provisions of the two preceding rules shall give the management of the cockpit the right to eject the person or persons responsible therefore, and in addition to file such criminal action the management may see fit.

Rule 4. There shall be a referee (sentenciador) appointed by the management of the cockpit, who shall have the following duties to wit:

- a. To direct and supervise the fight of game cocks in the ring and enforce all the rules on cockfight as herein prescribed.
- b. To see to it, before the cocks are ordered released to fight, that their gaffs are genuine, placed in the correct position, and in right angle, and properly stringed.
- c. To see to it that the contending cocks are in good physical condition- holding the cocks one after another at a reasonable height from the ground and releasing cocks has been fixed (tippe), poisoned, injured, wounded or is unable to continue in a fight due to any physical defects internationally inflicted upon it. In case any of the cocks suffers from any of these defects, the match shall be nullified.
- d. To keep the two cocks in constant fight until one is outfought in the encounter or the two cocks are dead or refuse to fight any longer.
- e. The referee has the authority to declare a draw to a match when in his opinion the match is fixed.
- f. To decide each fight immediately and publicly and his decision is FINAL.

Rule 5. There shall be an assistant referee possessing the same qualifications as the referee who shall act in the absence or sickness of the referee, or discharge such duties as may be assigned to him by the referee.

Rule 6. In case the referee needs assistance in carrying out any of the rules herein prescribed, as in the act of performing the confrontation, and in the removal of the cocks to the center of the ring, he shall ask the assistant referee to render to him the necessary aid.

Rule 7. The contending sides may, in a particular match, agree to appoint a third party to act as referee who shall, however, be subject to all the rules herein prescribed.

Rule 8. The referee and assistant referee, including members of their immediate families, are absolutely prohibited to have game cocks of their own in the cockpit where they are the referee and own in the cockpit where they are the referee and assistant referee; neither, shall both be allowed to place a bet or side be during matches (soltadas). Any violation of this rules shall disqualify permanently the referee or the assistant referee, as the case may be, from acting as such in cockpit.

Rule 9. There shall be two starters (soltadores) in each fight 1 whose duties shall be to release the contending cocks, and to go to their respective places opposite each other, after the two contending cocks have met and in actual fight. They shall not leave these places, except when their persons are endangered by the fighting cocks, remaining, however, always apart.

The management shall provide places where the starters shall be located after releasing their respective cocks, which Places shall be adjacent to the ring with free access thereto.

Rule 10. The starters shall not take back their respective cocks after releasing them to fight, except when so ordered by the referee or when their respective cocks peck on the ground or are out of position.

Rule 11. The starters shall not interfere with the referee by either preventing the latter from taking the two cocks to perform the necessary confrontation (careo) or from rendering this rule shall lose the matched-money delivered by him or by the owner of the cock released by him to the bet fixer: Provided, however, that the betting of the general public shall be decided in accordance with the result of the fight. The said starter shall furthermore be disqualified permanently from releasing any cock in the ring of any cockpit.

Rule 12. There shall be a bet fixer (casador) appointed by the management of the cockpit, whose duty shall be to take possession of the matched money from the starters or owners of the two contending cocks before the fight, delivering the money to the corresponding winners after the fight, and after deducting the participation to which the management and the owners agree when the fight, is declare a draw.

Rule 13. The bet fixer shall place the matched money before each fight on a table located within the premises of any cockpit and shall advise the referee before the latter orders the release of the game cocks, that all arrangements with respect to betting have been completed.

Rule 14. Persons waging a bet may, at their option, change their bet or withdraw their matched money before any fight begins: but once the fight has started, no such change, or withdrawal shall be permitted. Any discrepancy or shortage in the amount of bets delivered to the bet fixer shall be paid by the management.

Rule 15. The management of cockpits has the right and power to oust with the assistance of peace officers to bar any person who is causing nuisance or disturbance in the cockpit premises during cockfights.

Rule 16. The ring of any cockpit shall be at least seven (7) meters wide, which shall be maintained clean at all

Rule 17. Two lines parallel with each other shall be drawn in the middle of the ring with a distance of forty (40) centimeters between them.

Rule 18. The game cocks shall each have a gaff of such form and length, and places in such manner as may be agreed upon between the opposing sides. The gaffs shall be smooth, clean, pointed at the end and sharpened at one side. During the fight the position of such gaffs shall not be changed nor down or is loosened from the leg.

Rule 19. The referee may, however, interfere in any match for the purpose allowing the contending cocks to continue the fight.

- a. When the gaffs of both cocks are entangled with one another thereby preventing the continuance of the fight.
- b. When the gaff of any fighting cock gets entangled with the railing of the ring, or of any object, and its adversary does not take the initiative to attack.
- c. When the gaff is embarked in any of the cocks, the same may be removed when the cocks have stopped pecking or shuffling.

RULE 20. Only four (4) persons shall remain in the ring when the two contending cocks are released to fight, the referee, the two starters, and other employees, not exceeding four, provided, that if it is necessary to maintain peace and order, any peace officer may enter or stay in the said premises.

RULE 21. After arrangement have been made with regard to bets waged on each fighting cock, and after having complied with the requirements of the preceding rule, the starters, upon the direction of the referee, shall cause their respective cocks to peck on each other, remove the sweats of the gaffs. And worthwhile release the contending cocks.

RULE 22. Any, match shall be deemed terminated-

- a. When one or both cocks are killed in a fight.
- b. When any one of them flees or runs away as a sign of giving-up the fight.
- c. The referee shall render his decision by raising the winning cock in his hand, and delivering the same to the corresponding starter.

RULE 23. If in an encounter a cock flees or runs away but not quickly or give signs that it gives-up the fight, it should be left undisturbed until it quakes and shown signs that it refuses to fight any longer.

RULE 24. The match shall be deemed terminated and considered a draw whenever any of the game cocks, at the start, without being attacked by its adversary, flees or runs away, and refuses to fight.

RULES 25. In no case shall a cockfight be allowed to last more than ten (10) minutes from the start of the fight. After ten (10) minutes, the referee shall declare the said match a DRAW (tabla). However, the referee must count ten (10) seconds from the termination of the ten (10) minutes from the start of the fight. The count must be made public. For this purpose, the management shall provide a time piece situated at a conspicuous place for the general public to see.

RULE 26. Confrontation shall be effected by the referee in the following cases:

- a. When neither of the contending cocks does not initiate a fight or pursue its adversary.
- b. When the cock that pursues its adversary in the ring stops in its pursuit or departs from its course and fight is not resumed when seen by its adversary.
- c. When the cocks are seriously wounded after an encounter and cannot attack each other.
- d. When one of the cocks or both of them appear to be dead.
- e. When one of the fighting cocks attacks the other and cannot pull off its gaff from its adversary.
- f. When one of the cocks falls on top of the other and remains in this position or in any case when two cocks are close to each other that each is unable to make any movements to attack each other.
- g. When one of the cocks does not fight back after receiving a blow from its adversary, and it is not certain that it refuses to fight any longer.

RULE 27. Whenever a contending cock abandons its position after confrontation and takes to flight with its feathers near its head raised as an indication of giving upon the fight, the said cock shall be deemed to have lost although it walks slowly in leaving such position.

RULE 28. It during the encounter one of the contending cocks falls, on the ground, and then flees, leaving behind its adversary, the match shall not be deemed terminated whenever the fleeing cock stops and shows signs to fight, in which case confrontation shall be effected. If it retreats or refuses, the match shall be declared in favor of the adversary.

RULE 29. If the cock has pecked its adversary twice clearly if and adversary refuses to do so it is declared a win. If the cock shuffles it will also be declared a win. If both cocks make only one peck, then it will have declared a draw.

RULE 30. When both cocks are seriously, and after confronting with each other are no longer in a fighting mood, the referee shall observe closely which of them show signs of dying such as twisting the head or pecking on the ground. When one or both cocks show such signs that they should be confronted and place face to face on the ground for them to peck or shuffle at each other. Victory is decided by two (2) pecks or one (1) shuffle or one (1) peck and one (1) shuffle, considering the opponent does not response. The decision of the referee is final and unappeasable.

RULE 31. When one of the contending cocks, without being attacked by its adversary, walks away from its position and there is doubt as to its desire to fight, the referee shall effect the necessary confrontation. If in the act or performing the confrontation the cock referred to instantly dies at the hands of the referee, it shall be considered the loser after it is pecked twice by its opponent. Should the other cock die instead, confrontation shall be effected just the same, and if its adversary refuses to fight, it shall be considered as having run away, and the match shall be considered a draw.

RULE 32. In the event that the cocks referred to in the preceding rule which wilds away from its position shows signs of dying in the same manner as its adversary, the referee shall immediately lift and hold it in his hand and place it in front of the other which might be lying on the ground or standing still to determine which of them shall be declared the loser in accordance with Rule 28, hereof.

RULE 33. A cock which is seriously wounded shall not be considered the loser although it sticks it beak on the ground.

- a. When it continues to stand on its legs.
- b. When it sticks its beak on the ground as a result of its attempt to rise due to an injured leg or broken wing or to any wound.
- c. When it does so because of its having been pecked by its adversary.

RULE 34. When one of the cocks pierces itself with its own gaff and remains lying on the ground, the referee shall not disturb the cock until he is satisfied that the wounded cock is already dead, in which case he shall pull out the gaff of the dead cock and shall hold its adversary in his hands. The dead cock shall be considered the loser. If on the other hand, it is found that the wounded cock is alive, the referee shall cause them to resume the fight.

RULE 35. If the cock which was not wounded by its own gaff dies, the referee shall proceed to the confrontation shall be effected by the referee after pulling out the gaff of the wounded cock.

RULE 36. If the cock which was not wounded by its own gaff dies, the referee shall proceed to the confrontation and should its adversary peck or attack, the latter shall be declared the winner. But should it quickly and refuse to fight, the match shall be declared a draw.

The match shall likewise be declared a draw if after pulling out the gaff which stuck into a cock, the same dies thereafter, and its adversary does not peck it.

RULE 37. In addition to the case mentioned in the preceding rule, a match shall likewise be declared a draw.

- a. When both cocks die simultaneously.
- b. When one of the cocks flees from the other which is in the act of dying and no longer pecks or shuffles.
- c. When both cocks show signs of dying and neither pecks, nor attacks the other. In this case, the referee shall not wait for one to die ahead of the other, not held either of them.
- d. When one of the cocks jumps out of the railing of the ring after the first attack of its adversary, and is not wounded.
- e. When both cocks refuse to peck each other before the start of any fight in the absence of a mutual agreement to the effect.

RULE 38. Confrontation shall be effected by the referee and the assistant referee without the intervention of the starters or other persons and shall be done precisely at the place where the cocks are found without the necessity of taking them to the middle of the ring. Confrontation between the live cock and the dead one shall be effected in the same place where they are found. Loser not only loses high places but also his cock, dead or alive.

RULE 39. Questions arising from any condition not covered by these rules shall be decided in accordance with practices, customs and usages generally established and observed in the locality.
